

THE MISSIONS SAFE.

Minister Terrell Receives Assurance to That Effect.

THE AMERICAN MISSIONARIES

Who Are Known Not to Have Been Injured--Matters Tranquil in the Disturbed Portion of the Turkish Empire, But the Danger Point Not Yet Passed.

Constantinople, Nov. 25.—The United States minister, Mr. Alexander W. Terrell, has received a dispatch from Aintab, announcing the safe arrival there of the American missionaries belonging to the Central Turkish Mission, (Dr. and Mrs. Amicus Fuller, the Rev. Charles S. Sanders, Mrs. A. M. Trowbridge, Miss Ellen M. Price and Miss Elizabeth M. Trowbridge,) and the English governess, Miss McDonald.

The missionaries said that full protection was afforded them by the Turkish authorities when it was demanded from the Porte by Mr. Terrell. The latter now says he is satisfied that the 172 missionaries in Anatolia are safe. The situation here is still grave and more complicated.

The governor of Hadjin, who had threatened to burn the convent there and set fire to the barley fields in the vicinity has, owing to the strong representations made to the Porte on the subject by Mr. Terrell, been recalled, and his conduct will be inquired into. The members of the American colony here, as well as other foreign residents of this city and vicinity, join in praising the energetic and effective action of Mr. Terrell under very trying circumstances. There seems to be no reason for doubting that his representations to the Porte have been the means of saving American lives and preserving American property.

Although the demands of the powers for a permit to add extra guardships to their fleet were made over a week ago, on the ground that the foreign population of Constantinople then needed this additional protection, the Sultan still holds out in his refusal to grant the required permission.

THE PORTE'S REPLY.

From the highest authority, the Associated Press is enabled to give the view of the case taken by the Turkish government. It is as follows:

While admitting that the powers possess the right to have two guardships each in the Bosphorus, the Porte considers that the proposed increase of the number of foreign war vessels there, under the present condition of things in the Turkish empire, might excite the Mussulmans and produce an effect far from the one desired by the powers.

In addition, the Porte points out that, in view of the measures taken to preserve order here, an increase in the number of guardships attached to the embassies is not required.

It can be said upon authority that this is the substance of a note which the Porte has sent to the representatives of the powers in reply to an urgent request for the firmans referred to.

So soon as the note shall have been received and considered at the British, Russian, Italian and Australian embassies, a conference of the representatives of those powers, will be called, and a joint reply may be sent to the Porte.

THE REAL REASON.

While the above is, in brief, the reply which the Porte is sending to the four powers, it should be added that, in political circles, the repugnance of the Porte to grant the firmans applied for, is attributed to the belief which is said to exist among the Turkish ministers and Abdul Hamid's Entourage, that to grant the firmans would be a sad blow to the dignity of the Sultan and direct proof of lack of confidence upon the part of the powers in his inability to govern and maintain order.

But, behind this, it is claimed, lurks the fear upon the part of the Sultan that the demanded increase in the number of foreign guardships in the Bosphorus, is really only a cloak for the intention of the powers to make a naval demonstration in Turkish waters in case of renewed disturbances in Asiatic Turkey.

The Hairkink, a local newspaper, which, as exclusively announced in these dispatches, was suppressed last week because its editor refused to publish an article sent to him by the Turkish authorities, condemning "the intrigues of the Armenians," has been granted permission to resume publication.

The absence of news from Zeltoun, where the Armenians are still said to be holding in strong force, and the failure of the government to furnish any information regarding the concentration of Turkish troops at Marash for the advance on Zeltoun, is causing some uneasiness.

Desider, no news is obtainable concerning the rising of the Kurds against the Turkish rule, one of the most serious features of the whole situation.

WOULD STAND AGHAST

If Europe Knew the Worst of the Armenian Massacres.

London, Nov. 25.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Constantinople, giving a general resume of the situation, declares that the recent massacres put the earlier outrages at Sassoun and Mouh in the shade. If either England, France or Russia could publish the stories reported officially by their consuls, all Europe would stand aghast at the proof, supplied to think such things possible. Wherever these consuls have investigated matters, they have found that the accusations that the Armenians provoked the riots are false.

A FATHER'S CRIME.

Herman Hattenhaft Kills His Children and Himself.

WIFE AND MOTHER DISTRACTED.

She Knew of No Cause for the Deed—The Murderer and Suicide a Well Known Brooklyn Man, and Business Troubles Are Supposed to Have Deranged His Mind—Mrs. Hattenhaft May Die From the Awful Shock—How the Bodies Were Discovered.

New York, Nov. 25.—Herman Hattenhaft, a physical instructor, killed his two children and himself in Brooklyn yesterday. He lived in Greene avenue, with his wife and two children, the latter very young.

Hattenhaft went out in the afternoon, taking the two children with him. When he had not returned at midnight, his wife started out to look for the three.

The doors of the gymnasium where Hattenhaft was employed were found locked and were battered in by the police. They found father and children lying dead.

The two children had been shot and killed by their father, who then shot himself. The bodies were cold and the presumption is that the triple tragedy occurred during the afternoon.

The bodies of two children were found in a closet used for vapor baths, into which a tube connecting the gas pipe was inserted. The children had died of asphyxiation.

The wife and mother is so prostrated with the grief that it is feared she cannot recover. At intervals between fainting spells, Mrs. Hattenhaft said that there had been no domestic difficulties between herself and husband, and that she thought he must have become temporarily deranged over business troubles, of which she had heard him speak on several occasions.

Twelve years ago, Hattenhaft was a pugilist, and was well-known in Brooklyn as an athlete. He was at one time the instructor in the Brooklyn Athletic Club.

The Old, Old Story.

New York, Nov. 25.—Mrs. William Collins, occupying a flat in West Tenth street, left her three children locked in the rooms while she went on a short errand to-day. In her absence the children made a fire on the floor with some newspapers, their clothing became ignited, and Lillian, aged five, was burned to death, while Willie, 10 months old, was so badly injured that he died to-night. The third child, four years old, was only slightly burned. The fire did only a few hundred dollars' damage to the building.

NEWSPAPER DEAL

In Chicago—Two Big Papers Consolidate. United Press Loses a Client.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—When the Evening Press Company was organized by Mr. George Booth, who purchased the Evening Mail and started the Evening Press, there began in Chicago a new era in newspaperdom, for the paper enjoyed an unusual prosperity. The Press Company, capitalized at $500,000, purchased the Journal a week ago, John R. Wilson, its proprietor, and James E. Scripps, of Detroit, becoming stockholders with Mr. Booth. The consolidated paper was issued this afternoon, and it is promised that the readers of the former separate papers will be gainers in every way. It is understood that the entire staffs of both papers will be retained, except in a few instances. The paper will have one of the largest corps of workers of any afternoon paper in the United States. For the present the names of both papers will be used, the heading presenting the evidence of the consolidation thus: "The Chicago Evening Journal" in the first line and "The Evening Press" in the second.

The Journal used the Associated Press report, and the Press that of the United Press. In the words of Mr. Booth, "the consolidation will utilize to the fullest extent the matchless service of the Associated Press, supplemented with a comprehensive special service." So the United Press loses another paper in Chicago.

HE DECLINES.

Jim Corbett Says He Will Never Again Go in the Ring.

New York, Nov. 25.—A special to a local paper from Lynn, Mass., says: James J. Corbett, in an interview to-day said:

"I am disgusted with the entire business, and henceforth will confine my enterprises to the stage. No matter what the publicity may say, whether it be complimentary or otherwise, I cannot be induced to again enter the arena. I bestowed the championship upon Maher because he is an Irishman and because I prefer he should bear and defend that title rather than place it in the hands of either an Australian or an Englishman. I consider Peter Maher the peer of any man in the ring and have no hesitancy in saying that he can whip Fitzsimmons."

Parkersburg Branch Meeting.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. Parkersburg, W. Va., Nov. 25.—Parkersburg Branch Railroad Company stockholders held their annual meeting to-day. Secretary VanWinkle's report showed the gross earnings, $731,421; expenses, $562,794; net earnings, $168,627. The election of officers for the ensuing year was as follows: General Orlando Smith, Baltimore, president; directors, W. W. Taylor, Aubrey Pearce, W. H. Blackford, Lyttleton Tough, William Tucker, all of Baltimore, and W. N. Chancellor, J. N. Camden, C. H. Shattuck, of Parkersburg.

The Gold Reserve.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 25.—To-day's statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $178,747,662; gold reserve, $53,632,752.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS.

Alaska's gold output for the year has been $3,000,000.

The Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress is in session at Omaha.

Arthur Arnold, the French literature, to leave for Paris to-day.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Justice Jackson were spread on the supreme court records yesterday.

Vancouver, the terminus of the Canadian Pacific railway, has come to the front as a rich gold field. One quartz vein is eighty feet wide.

EMPIRE KNIGHTS OF RELIEF.

Open Session of the Lodge—Banquet at Brubaker's Cafe Last Night.

The recently organized lodge of the Empire Knights of Relief had an enjoyable meeting of the members of that organization last evening at their lodge rooms in the Rogers block, the occasion being made doubly interesting by the visit of Supreme Commander Emory D. Angel and Supreme Secretary Frank E. Munger, and the founder of the order of Buffalo, New York. A large number of ladies was present at the hall. Interesting addresses dealing with the objects and purposes of the order were made by Messrs. E. D. Angel, F. E. Munger, Dr. G. A. Aschman and F. H. Lange.

Upon the conclusion of the meeting at the lodge rooms the members of the order adjourned to the restaurant parlors of Col. Sam Brubaker, where a most tempting lunch was discussed until a late hour.

Dr. George I. Garrison presided as toast master, and the following gentlemen spoke entertainingly on the subjects assigned them: Mr. F. H. Lange, "Our Guests;" Dr. G. A. Aschman, "Fraternity;" Mr. Richard Robertson, "The Joiner;" Mr. Frank Grimes, "City of Wheeling;" Supreme Commander E. D. Angel, "The Supreme Council;" Supreme Secretary F. E. Munger, "Regulations of the Organizer;" Mr. Charles J. Gilligan, "The Goat."

Before the gathering broke up a resolution of thanks was voted Col. Brubaker for the handsome entertainment he had provided, also to Mr. A. S. Arbens for the loan of chairs and the fitting up of the lodge room.

The following gentlemen had charge of the affair, and right royally did they discharge their duties:

Committee of Arrangements—F. H. Lange, Charles F. Brandfass, John J. Kenney, Richard Robertson, Dr. George I. Garrison.

Committee on Reception—F. H. Lange, Charles F. Brandfass, Dr. Geo. I. Garrison.

ALL FOR MCKINLEY.

Senator Thurston Says Nebraska Is Solid for the Ohio Man.

New York, Nov. 25.—Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, is at the Fifth Avenue hotel. In an interview to-day, he said:

"The Republicans of Nebraska are for McKinley for the presidential candidate, first, last and all the time."

"The strength of the Ohio man in the west comes from the fact that the working people believe in him. They know that under the McKinley law they were getting more pay than they are getting now. Business was generally better. They are satisfied that McKinley had something to do with it, and they want to vote for him for President."

"Do you think that the Republicans will be able to organize the United States senate at the coming session?" was asked.

"Yes, and I believe all the Populist members of the senate will vote with the Republicans at this session. That, at least, is the understanding among the leaders now, and I do not think that anything will turn up to change the programme."

Governor-elect Bushnell, of Ohio, is at the Holland House. In an interview to-day, he expressed the opinion that McKinley will be the next Republican nominee for President.

THAT RAILROAD POOL.

President Caldwell Says That No Law Has Been Violated in the Matter.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 25.—President D. W. Caldwell, of the Lake Shore, does not see anything wrong in the railroad presidents' agreement. "There are positively no grounds," he says, "whereby any legal exceptions can be taken to the rules embodied in the agreement. Its fundamental principle is the making and maintaining of all fares, rates and rules of the association."

"Do you think Senator Chandler will be able to quash the agreement?"

"What do we care for what Senator Chandler or Congress does? Nothing illegal has been done. People down at Washington are making all the fuss, but they will find that their efforts will have been for naught."

Breakinridge Resurrected.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 25.—A special to the Post from Frankfort, says: Col. W. C. P. Breakinridge, of Lexington, it is now understood, will make the race for Congress in the Seventh district next year. It is said that his wife told his friends that he will make the race and he expects to win. During the late campaign, Col. Breakinridge stamped the district for the Democratic state ticket and everywhere drew immense crowds.

Attempt to Poison a Pastor.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Nov. 25.—Rev. J. Jackimowicz, of the Polish Catholic church in Mt. Carmel, narrowly escaped being poisoned at the early Sunday morning mass. A quantity of Paris green had been placed in the wine vessel, which holds in the habit of drinking from during the service. Fortunately the powder was visible on top of the wine, and as a previous attempt had been made on his life the Rev. Jackimowicz became suspicious, and did not partake of the wine. The poison was placed in the vessel during Saturday night.

Wreck on the Pan-Handle.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 25.—An eastbound dressed beef train broke in two and ran together in a tunnel near Steubenville, and trains on the Pan-Handle road have been delayed for fifteen hours, the wreck completely blocking the road. No. 21, due at 7 a. m., bearing the remains of the late Edwin A. Myers, of the Pittsburgh Post, was one of the delayed trains and did not arrive here until 4 p. m. The funeral was to have been held here this afternoon.

He Took to the Woods.

McARTHUR, Ohio, Nov. 25.—At the fair grounds here last night G. H. Rogers was ridden on a rail and afterwards tarred and feathered. The sheriff arrived and prevented further maltreatment, but advised the victim to take to the woods, which he did. Rogers' offense was speaking disrespectfully of a lady school teacher at this place.

Railroad Sold.

CONTRABAND, Nov. 25.—The Mobile & Girard railroad was sold at public auction in Girard, Ala., to-day, to Julian T. Davies, of New York, for $1,000,000. The sale was made under a decree of foreclosure. It is stated that Mr. Davies purchased the road for himself. The line is 130 miles, from Columbus to Soabright, Ala.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

A Pennsylvania Man Fatally Wounds His Wife and Kills Himself.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 25.—At Throop, a few miles north of here, this afternoon, Zera Robbins shot and fatally wounded his wife and then shot himself. He died within a short time. The woman was brought to the Lackawanna hospital in this city and is dying there. The shooting was the result of a quarrel and occurred in the presence of Robert Brown Zerling, who, it is stated, had advised Mrs. Robbins to leave her husband.

Robbins first shot at Zerling and missed his aim. He then sent a bullet into his wife's head and she fell unconscious. Robbins threw himself upon her and caressed and kissed her. Then he arose and sent a bullet into his own brain. He was fifty-five years old, a carpenter by trade, and well respected in the village.

THREATENED LYNCHING.

Two Colored Men Will Likely be the Victims of a Mob.

ANNEVILLE, S. C., Nov. 25.—Notice has been received here that a mob will come to town before morning and attack the jail for the purpose of lynching two prisoners, John Mitchell and Richard Wash, both colored, who are under arrest for the murder of Norissa Bagwell, a white woman, twenty-eight years old. The circumstances indicate that the woman may have been outraged. She was killed Thursday evening on the public highway near her home, fifteen miles from here, and her body was taken to a deserted house and burned. The charred remains were found. Wash says that he was with Miss Bagwell at 3 o'clock Friday morning, and asserts that she cut her throat with a razor, and that before doing so she requested him to burn her body in the house. The story is improbable, and it is thought the murder was to secure the proceeds of a bale of cotton which Miss Bagwell had. The jail is being guarded to-night.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Hasbrod Kelch, of Cleveland, Shoots His Divorced Wife.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Hasbrod Kelch for several years has done little but drink whisky and loiter about saloons. A few weeks ago his wife obtained a divorce from him. This afternoon at 5 o'clock, while drunk, he went to No. 210 Willey street, where his wife has been staying, and coming upon her a short distance from the house, shot her in the right temple. He then shot himself in the centre of the forehead. An ambulance conveyed them to the Deaconess Hospital, where Mrs. Kelch died immediately upon her arrival. It was ascertained that the bullet in Kelch's head had gone between the two lobes of the brain. It was extricated, and he will probably recover.

THE CAREY LAND ACT.

Secretary Smith Recommends an Important Amendment.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—Secretary Hoke Smith, in his annual report, will recommend that the Carey law granting one million acres of arid lands to each state in which such lands are situated, be amended so that the grant be made to the state outright, and it be made responsible for the irrigation of the lands. Under the law as it now stands it would be many years before the state would receive the benefit of the grant and Secretary Smith believes that the state can carry out better the intention of Congress if it gets control of the entire grant, instead of waiting until water is secured for the lands.

SPLIT ON RELIGIOUS LINES.

A Divided Court in the Libel Case Against Archbishop Faber.

MONTREAL, Nov. 25.—The case of the Canadian Review against Archbishop Faber for $50,000 damages through putting the paper under the ban of the church, came up for judgment in the court of review this morning. Judges Tait, Taschereau and Archibald presided. The two former, both Catholics, were unanimous in deciding that the bishop had a right to condemn any paper that spoke contrary to the teachings of the Catholic church. Judge Archibald, a Protestant, dissented, and gave the Canada Review $10,000 on the grounds that the bishop's action was unjustifiable interference. An appeal will be taken.

Detroit's Masonic Fair.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 25.—The biggest Masonic fair ever held in the west opened here to-day. It is the first use made of the new Masonic temple, which is one of the finest buildings in the world devoted exclusively to Masonry, and will cost over a million dollars.

Good from every state in the union and every country in the world are among the exhibits. The exhibition of curios and numismatics is considered the finest yet seen in this country. The opening was quite a society event, despite the wretched weather, which necessitated cancelling the street parade part of the programme.

A Leper in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A leper, in whom the disease was well advanced, was found in the streets to-day. He was taken to the office of the health board and examined by Dr. C. E. Benedict, of the bureau of contagious diseases. Dr. Benedict ordered the man sent to the reception hospital. The man said he was Fila Delbo, and that he came here several months ago. Later he has been living in the tenement, 32 Cherry street.

The Cowles-Roosevelt Wedding.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The marriage of Lieutenant-Commander W. S. Cowles, the United States naval attaché, to Miss Roosevelt, sister of James M. Roosevelt, secretary of the United States embassy, took place at St. Andrew's church, Westminster, at 2:30 p. m. to-day. The Rev. Hon. J. S. Northcote officiated. The Austrian naval attaché was the best man. Mr. Corrier, Mr. Bayard's secretary, and Mr. D. A. Wells, of the United States embassy, were the ushers.

CUBAN FUSION.

Reformists and Conservatives Forming an Alliance.

BUT ONE OBSTACLE IN THE WAY

To a Consummation of the Negotiations. Official News From the Seat of War is That Rego, the Insurgent Leader, Was Defeated, With a Loss of a Hundred Killed and Wounded—A Plantation Laid Waste Near Soledad—Belonged to An American.

HAVANA, Nov. 25.—It is understood that the reformist party is upon the point of making a fusion with the conservatives. The only thing preventing the union is that Conde Mortera, the reformist president, aspires to the presidency of the fusion party, as indicated in a recent letter, which he wrote to a prominent leader, Manuel Calve. The conservatives, however, do not care to sacrifice the actual president, Marques Apetozul. It is thought probable that the reformists will consent to Apetozul's leadership.

While reconnoitering near Matanzas, a detachment of troops discovered the body of Andres Trags, the insurgent leader, who was mortally wounded in a skirmish a few days ago.

The forces of Rego, the insurgent leader, according to official advices received here at the last engagement, lost 100 killed and wounded. Among the wounded was General Rego himself.

A large quantity of sugar cane has been burned at a plantation near Soledad. The sugar cane belonged to an American named Atkins.

Word is received of the latest battle of the war at Aguas, between 4,000 Cubans and 1,000 Spaniards. The latter were routed. The killed and wounded number 600. General Aldave is reported killed.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The Times this morning publishes a dispatch from Copenhagen announcing that the Spanish government has notified the Danish authorities that Danish ships have recently assisted the Cuban rebels with arms and ammunition.

WARLIKE REPORTS

Regarding the Venezuelan Matter Pronounced to Be False.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Nothing is known at the colonial office here of the alleged statements of the administrator of British Guiana that the imperial government is prepared to assert the rights of British Guiana by force of arms. News has reached here some days ago that the legislature of that colony had acquiesced to the proposal of the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Chamberlain, to increase the colonial force by two sub-inspectors and another Maxim gun, the legislature also notifying the government that it is prepared to vote anything the colonial secretary considered necessary for the defense of the colony.

No further proposal, however, has been made by the imperial government. There has been no change in the boundary dispute, and the government, it is added, will not tolerate Venezuelan aggression beyond the Schomburgk line. Otherwise, it is stated, the warlike statements printed in certain newspapers are not founded on facts.

RAIDING SOCIALISTS' HOUSES.

German Police Capture the Letters and Papers of Socialist Members of the Reichstag.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—The police raided the houses of the Socialist members of the Reichstag and other members of the Socialist party to-day. A thorough search was made of their domiciles, and all their letters and papers were taken to the office of the chief of police.

It is reported that the action of the authorities is based upon some infringement of the Prussian law governing the right of association.

In all the houses of 104 Socialists were searched, and in 150 cases documents and papers seized. Among the residences in which the police obtained possession of documents were those of Herron Singer and Bebel.

Similar raids were made at Cologne, Breslau and other cities.

ALEXANDER DUMAS ILL.

The Distinguished Author and Playwright in a Serious Condition.

PARIS, Nov. 25.—Alexander Dumas, the distinguished author and playwright, is seriously ill. The physicians in attendance upon him at first thought he was suffering from a violent attack of neuralgia, but later they recognized graver symptoms.

The Parisiens says that Dumas was seized on Saturday with cerebral congestion and that Dr. Pozzi diagnosed it as cerebral abscess. The patient, it is added, has been in a comatose condition since last evening.

NICARAGUA CANAL.

Europeans Trying to Get Nicaragua to Annul the Contract.

MANAGUA, Nov. 21, via GALVESTON.—Europeans here have been trying to persuade the government of Nicaragua to annul the canal contract entered into with citizens of the United States. As a result, the opinion of Judge Duarte, of the supreme court, has been requested on the subject.

The official report of the agent here of the Nicaragua Canal Company has been made public and declares that organization to be adverse to the construction of the canal under the supervision of the United States government.

The Duke and Duchess.

GIBRALTAR, Nov. 25.—The North German Lloyd steamer Fulda, from New York, November 16, arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning. The duke and duchess of Marlborough are passengers.

Weather Forecast for To-day.

For West Virginia, threatening weather, and heavy southerly winds shifting to much colder westerly winds.

For Western Pennsylvania and Ohio, threatening rain, brisk and high, clearing and moderating on the lakes, shifting to westerly cooler Tuesday night. Much colder in western Ohio Tuesday evening.

THE TEMPERATURE YESTERDAY.

As furnished by C. SHERRIFF, druggist, corner Market and Fourteenth streets.

7 a. m. thermometer 43° 3 p. m. thermometer 57° 9 a. m. barometer 30.1° 3 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°

11 a. m. thermometer 55° 7 p. m. thermometer 53° 11 a. m. barometer 30.1° 7 p. m. barometer 30.1°